

EGYPTOLOGY IN MANCHESTER
THURSDAY 24TH JUNE – SUNDAY 27TH JUNE 2010

PROGRAMME

Day 1: Thursday 24th June 2010

The Work of the KNH Centre (1)

The Kanaris lecture theatre – The Manchester Museum

10.00: Registration and coffee.

10.20-10.30: Welcome

10.30-11.30: Professor Rosalie David.

Egyptian Mummies and Modern Science: the research and teaching role of the KNH Centre.

11.30-11.45: Refreshment break

11.45-12.45: Dr Jacky Finch.

Out on a Limb....

12.45-2.15: Lunch (provided). A chance to watch the recent TV documentary on the Belfast Mummy, featuring Professor David and members of the KNH Centre for Biomedical Egyptology.

2.15-3.15: Dr Vicky Gashe.

Investigating early mummification

3.15-3.30: Refreshment break

3.30-4.45: Guest Lecture by Dr Robert Connolly , Senior Lecturer in Physical Anthropology, Department of Anatomy and Anthropology, University of Liverpool.

The Mummies in the Tomb of Tutankhamen

4.45: Reception in the Manchester Museum

Day 2: Friday 25th June 2010

The Collections of the Manchester Museum

The Kanaris lecture theatre – The Manchester Museum

Please note: this day will include a tour of the Museum stores, and will therefore involve some walking and standing. Please inform us if this is likely to pose a problem.

10.00-11.15: Dr Joyce Tyldesley.

From Kahun to Cottonopolis: Ancient Egypt in Manchester.

11.15-11.30: Refreshment break

11.30-12.45: Hands-on session 1 (Dr Karen Exell, Dr Joyce Tyldesley, Ms Conni Lord and Ms Gina Criscenzo-Laycock)

12.45-2.00: Lunch (provided) and gallery work sheet

2.00-3.15: Hands-on session 2 (Dr Karen Exell, Dr Joyce Tyldesley, Ms Conni Lord and Ms Gina Criscenzo-Laycock)

3.15-3.30: Refreshment break

3.30-4.30: Dr Karen Exell.

Developments in the Egyptian Galleries at the Manchester Museum

4.30-4.55: Question and Answer session

Day 3: Saturday 26th June 2010

Medicine and Science in the Study of Ancient Egypt

The Kanaris lecture theatre – The Manchester Museum

9.50-10.00: Registration (for those not already registered on the Summer School)

10.00-11.15: Roger Forshaw.
Healing in Pharaonic Egypt

11.15-11.30: Refreshment break

11.30-12.45: Natalie McCreesh.
Practical magic: the science behind the ritual
&
A Cure for baldness: remedies for the hair and scalp from ancient Egypt

12.45-2.00: Lunch (provided) and an opportunity to look round the galleries of the Manchester Museum. A brief (optional) gallery talk will be repeated several times by Natalie McCreesh: please note, the gallery is likely to be quite busy with members of the public at this time.

2.00-3.15: Roger Forshaw.
The life and times of Hesyre: a true multitasker

3.15-3.30: Refreshment break

3.30-4.30: Joyce Tyldesley
Pests and Pestilence: The Healing Goddesses of Ancient Egypt

4.30-4.55: Question and Answer session

Day 4 (half day): Sunday 27th June 2010

The work of the KNH Centre (2)

This session will be held in the KNH Centre for Biomedical Egyptology:
Please meet in the reception of the Stopford Building at 10am.

10.00-12.00: Lab presentations by Mrs Angela Thomas, Dr Jenefer Cockitt, Dr Ryan Metcalfe and Ms Conni Lord.

12.00 noon: Summer School closes.